Saturday 9:00am - 11:30 and 1:30pm- 4:00pm

Saturday evening 7:00pm-10pm

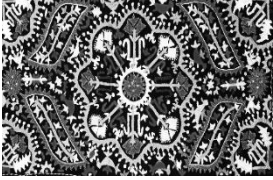

Tineke van Geel has been working as a dance teacher of International Dance since 1975 and has been visiting Armenia, the country of her dance specialization, since 1985. She attended classes at the Choreographic School and at the Pedagogical Institute in Yerevan and trained with various amateur groups. In addition, she conducts extensive field research in Armenia and visits the country annually.

Maurits van Geel has been active as a dance teacher, lecturer and choreographer since 1975. In addition to teaching numerous courses in International Dance, he researched and taught Appalachian clogging. From 1988 to 2011 he worked at the International Dance Theater, where he was responsible for the annually changing theater programs of this professional dance group and left a legacy of 47 productions. Theme programs of the International Dance Theater were based on field research, often in collaboration with local ethnomusicologists. He regularly made research journeys around the world, including 9 months in India, and traveled in numerous countries that were part of the Silk Road.
